

PROMOTING BUSINESS GROWTH ON LONG ISLAND

Presenting Companies:

Adhere Tech

AdhereTech has created patented smart pill bottles that increase medication adherence. These bottles measure the exact number of pills or liquid in the bottle in real-time, wirelessly send this HIPAA-compliant data into the cloud, and remind patients to take their medication via phone call or text.

CytoSorbents

CytoSorbents Corporation is a critical care-focused therapeutics company using blood purification filters to control excessive, potentially deadly inflammation that could otherwise cause the failure of vital organs.

First Wave Technologies, Inc.

First Wave Technologies Inc. is a medical device facilitation business, with two initial products, the First Crush automated pill crusher in order to make them digestible due to the high demand by the growing population of senior citizens; and a respiratory device conversion and amplification technology that turns a ventilator into the equivalent of a $150,000 anesthesia machine.

Mobile Health One

Mobile Health One, Inc. develops mobile, on-demand HIPAA-compliant systems that unify healthcare professionals
